DECISION ON ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS¹

Vowell, Special Master:

In this case under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program,² I issued a decision dismissing the petition on July 29, 2013. On August 19, 2013, the parties filed a stipulation for attorney fees and costs. The stipulation indicates that respondent does not object to the amount petitioners are requesting. Additionally, pursuant to General Order #9, the stipulation notes that petitioners incurred $508.65 in personal litigation costs.

² The applicable statutory provisions defining the program are found at 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10 et seq. (2006).

I find that this petition was brought in good faith and that there existed a reasonable basis for the claim. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1). Further, the proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, I hereby award the total $32,032.90³ as follows:

- A. A lump sum of $31,524.25 in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioners and petitioners' counsel of record, Richard Gage, for petitioners' attorney fees and costs; and
- B. A lump sum of $508.65 in the form of a check payable to petitioners, Shawn Fish and Theresa Fish, for their personal litigation costs.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y, HHS, 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir.1991).

⁴ Entry of judgment can be expedited by each party's filing of a notice renouncing the right to seek review. See Vaccine Rule 11(a).
